Vigilance Committees to Keep Boxing Clean

When Walker Bill Goes Into Effect Every Boxing Centre in State Will Be Carefully Scrutinized-Protest Against "Outsiders"-Other Boxing Gossip.

International Sporting Club said: "We cherish no illusions as to the probable discovery of a man able to defeat Dempsey. At the same time we believe that many men can be developed who would make it interesting for the second flight of heavyweightts. The club has no idea of commercializing the of any boxers it may discover, and after they have had all the tuition neces sary they will be turned loose to make their own way."

Sam Wallach, brother of Leach Cross, has thrown his hat into the ring for a commissionership under the prospective Walker law. Wallach has had experience in the boxing game, both as man-ager and trainer, and he says he has many ideas as to improvements in con-ditions. One is that youngsters should fifteen round contests.

* Provisions of the Law.

There appears to be much confusion in the minds of devotees of boxing as to the provisions of the Walker bill, which has passed both branches of the Legislature and now awaits the signature of Gov. Smith. Therefore a succinct summary of the bill appears to be in order. The measure provides for fifteen round bouts to a decision, under the supervision of a boxing commission of the shortcomings of a few.

Regarding "outsiders" their arrival of three members, at $5,000 a year and a secretary at $3,000 a year. This commission is vested with the sole direction lises to put boxing on as solid a basis of all boxing contests held within the here as it is in England, France and State and shall issue permits to duly Australia. As to "Outsiders."

A Brooklyn reader asks if it is not possible for New York State to produce a man capable of heading the Hoxing Commission provided for in the Walker bill. This is an interesting problem. It can only be solved when Gov. Smith has put some New Yorker in the posi-

There is not the slightest doubt that New York State men will hold all the salaried positions on the Boxing Commission, for it is impossible to pletely divorce such appointments from politics. By the same token no politician will care to have anything to do with ditions. CELTIC PARK OPENS TO-DAY.

Celtic Park, the home of Gaelic football, will throw open its gaes this for the first time this season when the Tipperary football club will stage its annual games. A champion-ship hurling match and a title footbell game are scheduled to take place. The hurling match, which is slated for 3 o'clock in the afternoon, will bring to gether the teams representing Tipper-ary and Offaly. Kerry will oppose Gal-way in the football game.
